Are you a researcher or specialist practitioner looking for an opportunity to learn new ideas and approaches?

Benefit from cross-fertilisation and an exchange of project information and methodologies.

Do you run a Criminal Justice organisation committed to developing best practice?

Send a representative expert to stretch his/her learning and to bring back new thinking.

SAVE THE DATE
3-6 July 2018

The Criminal Justice Platform Europe (CJPE) is launching the 2nd International Criminal Justice Summer Course in Barcelona (3-6 July 2018). The focus will be on developing practice. Expert practitioners will be running courses for colleagues from across Europe. The aim is to examine key practice issues, inspire new thinking, promote cross-fertilization and build new networks to improve services and practice in prisons, probation and restorative justice.

Workshop Approach

The summer course will be a combination of workshops, plenary sessions and field visits. The three parallel workshops will be attended by a mixture of participants with a background in prison, probation and restorative justice from a variety of European countries. Each workshop will have a specific focus for understanding and responding to radicalisation. Methods will include training, presentations and discussions among the participants.

Target audience

Expert practitioners; subject specialists; project development leaders; practice managers; trainers; academic practice teachers; researchers.

Fee

375€ Early Bird - 425€ after 15 April 2018. The fee includes materials, coffee breaks, one dinner, a local visit and certificate of attendance. Flights, accommodation and subsistence are NOT included.

When and where?

Workshop Themes

Characteristics of Violent Extremist Offenders (VEO) coming into prisons: assessment, treatment and reintegration

Exploring 'alternatives to detention': concrete activities and practices that help to develop understanding and competences for working with VEOs

Reimagining Violent Extremism (restoratively): sharing feelings, listening to stories and involving victims as a response to understand radicalisation

Organizers

The Criminal Justice Platform Europe is a partnership of three network organisations: the Confederation of European Probation (CEP), European Organisation of Prison and Correctional Services (EuroPris) and the European Forum for Restorative Justice (EFRJ). They organize this Summer Course in collaboration with the Centre for Legal Studies (Catalan Department of Justice).
